I am a self driven designer who would describe myself as outgoing and dependable. During my 3 years studying Graphic Design I have proven myself reliable by balancing a demanding and diverse workload while maintaining honour role status. I have experience developing inventive design solutions in both print and digital formats. I am well versed at working within established company branding, as well as creation of new and unique design elements. I pride myself on my ability to work independantly as well as with others. I learn and work effectively in any environment.

I hope to work with you and assist with any of your graphic design needs. I trust my abilities will be asset to your organization. I look forward to hearing from you.
